

INTERNATIONAL OPERA SINGER TO GRACE ANTHEM STAGE
WITH PROMUSICA ARIZONA NOV 16 & 17

ProMusica Arizona Chorale and Orchestra is thrilled to announce that Elizabeth Pacheco Rose will be a featured soloist at its concerts on November 16 and 17 at Boulder Creek Performing Arts Center, 40404 N. Gavilan Peak Parkway in Anthem. Ms. Pacheco Rose is a gifted lyric soprano who has studied and performed professionally throughout the United States, Europe, Israel and Puerto Rico. The Northern Virginia native will be traveling to Arizona from her current home in Puerto Rico, where she performs with Orquesta Sinfónica de Puerto Rico.

Ms. Pacheco Rose will be lending her warm, radiant and richly expressive voice to "Sleigh Ride," "Syncopated Clock," and "Blue Tango" , three popular Leroy Anderson songs that will delight the audiences. Anderson's music was some of the most recognized music played on the radio during the 30's and 40's. Later generations who may not recognize his name will recognize Anderson's music from television ads, cartoons and movies. One of these songs is called "The Typewriter" and will feature Sally Beardsley on the typewriter. Much of Anderson's music is memorable due to percussive sounds from unusual Instruments like blocks, whistles, ticking clocks, whip cracks and the clacking of typewriter keys. It makes for a fun and uplifting musical experience.

The title of the concert is "Snow,Sleighs and Leroy's 100th Birthday." and begins at 7:30 pm on Friday November 16 and Saturday November 17. More than 100 members of ProMusica Orchestra and Chorale , conducted by Artistic Director, Kevin Kozacek, will be showcasing some of Leroy Anderson's most familiar works along with other music of the winter season. Some of these other songs are "Dashing through the Snow," "Blow Thou Winter Wind," "The Snow," and "The Bells."

This concert is appropriate for all ages with advance ticket prices starting at $15 for Adults and $10 Students. Season ticket packages are available. Tickets are for sale at the Anthem Community Center, Deer Valley Credit Union in Anthem, Chase Bank in Anthem, Andrew Z Diamonds and Fine Jewelry in Anthem.
